

ICA POLICY STATEMENT ON

Open Access to Chiropractic Licensure

The International Chiropractors Association supports the principle of free and open licensure for qualified candidates in all states and jurisdictions. Furthermore, the ICA holds that any licensing authority which restricts access to licensure for qualified graduates for political reasons or restricts competition in a state or jurisdiction is in violation of the public trust and is engaging in grossly unfair behavior at the expense of the consumer and the chiropractic profession.