

CURRICULUM VITAE

JEFFREY N. SCHOLTEN, DC, DCCJP, FCCJP, BSC (KIN), PGCPAIN, FICA
Licensed Chiropractor (AB-1237) | Calgary, Canada

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Over two decades of private practice in Calgary, specializing in Chiropractic Craniocervical Junction Procedures

Clinic Director and Owner of Vital Posture Clinic

Adjunct Professor at Life Chiropractic College West, teaching senior chiropractic students

Dedicated to clinical research with a focus on patient outcomes prediction

EDUCATION & ACCREDITATIONS

Doctor of Chiropractic (Magna Cum Laude) - Palmer College of Chiropractic

Bachelor of Science in Kinesiology - University of Calgary

Graduate Certificate in Pain Management - University of Alberta

Fellow and Diplomate in Chiropractic Craniocervical Junction Procedures

AWARDS & HONORS

Fellows of the International Chiropractors Association (FICA) - 2023

Boghosian Visionary Award - 2022

Upper Cervical Chiropractor of the Year - 2015

VOLUNTEER & BOARD INVOLVEMENT

Board of Directors - International Chiropractors Association (ICA)

Chair of Credentialing Committee - ICA's Council on Upper Cervical Care (ICA-CUCC)

Vice-President - Ralph R. Gregory Memorial Foundation (Canada)

RESEARCH & PUBLICATIONS

Co-founder of a Chiropractic Practice-Based Research Network (PBRN)

Awarded public research grant in 2012 for PBRN study by the Canadian CAM Research Fund

Multiple publications in leading chiropractic journals and conferences

ACADEMIC CONTRIBUTIONS

Adjunct Professor at Life Chiropractic College West

Teaching Diagnosis and Management of Spinal Disorders to senior chiropractic students

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Member of the Board of Directors - Upper Cervical Research Foundation (UCRF)

Member of the Optimum Outcomes for Patients Group

AWARDS RECEIVED

Numerous awards for clinical research, including the Robert Brooks Impact Award, Certificate of Merit in Clinical Research from NUCCA, and more